

Iberian Blonde

Calvin Westfall

“We leave something of ourselves behind when we leave a place, we stay there, even though we go away. And there are things in ourselves that we can find only again by going back there.”

- Pascal Mercier, Night Train to Lisbon

Iberian Blonde is a collection of personal photos of a certain Brigham Young University student taken during a study abroad program to Spain. The photos take us on a trip across the Iberian Peninsula, exploring new sights and conquering new heights. Una rubia radiante in a predominately brunette world, she stands out and fits in at the same time. She has learned, and in turn teaches us, that through physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual effort it is possible to change a foreign world into a place we can call home.

She tells us that finding yourself entremundos is always worth it...
