

Authenticity

Emily Sue Leavitt

Artist Statement

With the technological age and globalization, distant worlds are becoming ever closer, overlapping, and mixing, giving birth to new interests, ideas, dreams, and issues. I believe that finding our place in the world and helping build up our communities is of utmost importance. However, as we do so, I believe that we must always stay true to our core values and be honest with ourselves and with others.